Staging Area: Line up no later than 6:30pm behind Island Ferry safety boat. The parade will begin promptly at 7pm from north Boca del Rio area and motor south slowly to Caribbean Villas Resort. You will put on your best show in front of the Judges Stand at Ramon's Village Pier. When you reach Caribbean Villas Resort, the lead boat will turn you north to return to Boca del Rio area, where the parade ends. Dock the boat and come to Central Park as soon as possible. Awards Ceremony will begin at Central Park around 8:30pm.

Skipper's Meeting (MUST ATTEND): One representative from each boat entry is REQUIRED to attend a meeting Friday Dec 4th, at 7pm at the Pier Lounge. You'll receive details regarding the parade route - tide information and weather for the event, water traffic control, radio channel monitoring and judging area. You will be required to put a $20 cash or check deposit on a number sign. Your deposit will be refunded when you return the sign at the awards presentation or to Coral Beach Realty before Dec 30. (We'd rather have the number back than keep your $20.) The Skipper's meeting is the only distribution point for the entry numbers!

Judging: Judges will be located on Tacklebox dock. In order to be judged: (1) Your boat must be lighted and decorated on both sides (Port & Starboard). (2) You must have an entry number displayed and visible on the Starboard side of your boat. This is the only identification the judges will use in scoring your boat for an award.

Photography: During the parade, still photos will be shot from the judging area. If possible, the photos will be on sale as soon as possible after the parade. Video's are available from the 2008 parade at $20 ea. Call Jan Brown, 662-2725 for information.

Awards: The awards are open to the public. The Awards presentation will start at 8:30pm, immediately following the parade at Central Park. A cash bar and music will be at hand. When the awards are given, your crew plus that boats' Sponsor (if any) will have your photograph taken along with the Trophy Sponsor.
